Peabody & Arnold associate Amanda DiMatteo has been selected as one of twenty-six Academy Fellows for the 2018-2019 class of the Massachusetts Bar Association's Leadership Academy, a program for attorneys with 3-10 years of experience that is designed to recruit and nurture future bar and civic leaders. The fellows, who were selected after a competitive application process, represent a diverse group of talented attorneys from across the Commonwealth, including attorneys from leading law firms as well as the City of Boston, Committee for Public Counsel, the Massachusetts Trial Court, and others.

The MBA's Leadership Academy is a 12-month program that runs concurrently with the MBA membership year, starting in September. Fellows are provided the opportunity to network, collaborate and build relationships with bar leaders; develop and enhance leadership skills important to their future in the legal profession; and get an insider's look at the important role the MBA plays within the legal system. Information on the MBA Leadership Academy can be found here.
