Overview

Allen's civil litigation trial practice focuses on the defense of professional liability claims. He represents lawyers and law firms in malpractice and disciplinary cases, as well as accountants, brokers, directors and officers, and other professionals. Professionals faced with a malpractice claim rely on Allen for an efficient and discreet resolution of the claim on the best terms possible. An accomplished and respected trial lawyer, Allen approaches every case as an intellectual challenge. With a reputation for insightful legal analysis, clients turn to Allen for his ability to unravel highly complex issues to determine the most efficient strategy for the resolution of the client's problem. Clients appreciate his composed, focused manner.

Allen also has an active insurance coverage practice, representing insurers in coverage litigation. In addition to his trial experience, Allen has significant appellate experience in both state and federal courts.

From 2011-2016, Allen served as Peabody & Arnold's managing partner.
