Overview

Ethan's civil litigation practice concentrates on employment law and general litigation matters.

Prior to joining Peabody & Arnold, Ethan served as a law clerk to the Honorable Noel E. Primos of the Delaware Superior Court. Prior to that, Ethan served as an AmeriCorps Fellow and Staff Attorney at Health Law Advocates, where he advocated on behalf of low-income Massachusetts residents who were experiencing difficulties accessing or paying for vital medical services.

Ethan received his Juris Doctor from Northeastern University School of Law in 2017 with a concentration in Labor, Work, & Income. During law school, Ethan interned with the United States Attorney's Office in Boston, for Partners HealthCare in their Office of General Counsel, and for two medium-size firms in Boston and Worcester. He also served as a Staff Member and Senior Staff Member on the Northeastern University Law Review and as a Teaching Assistant and Student Attorney for the Community Business Clinic.

Ethan graduated cum laude from American University in Washington, D.C., with a bachelor's degree in Political Science.
