Overview

Heather is developing her practice in directors and officers liability coverage and insurance defense. She serves as insurance coverage and monitoring counsel and specializes in assessing coverage for claims under directors and officers, employment practices, and professional liability policies. In her role as monitoring counsel, Heather provides assessments of potential liability, exposure and damages under the policies for all forms of civil litigation against corporate officers and directors, including securities fraud litigation under federal and state laws, investigations by governmental agencies, shareholder derivative suits, and employment practices claims.

Prior to joining Peabody & Arnold LLP, Heather was an assistant at Wellington Management.
