Overview

Henry serves as insurance coverage and monitoring counsel, assisting Fortune 500 companies across the U.S. and abroad in claims under directors and officers, employment practices, fiduciary liability, and professional liability policies. Henry brings extensive civil litigation experience and strategic advocacy skills to assist clients in a wide range of matters, including government investigations, securities class actions, shareholder derivative suits, and employment practices claims. As monitoring counsel, Henry maintains continuous contact with defense counsel and insureds regarding case strategy and risk assessment, reviews and audits defense fees and costs, and assists in representing clients at settlement conferences and at mediations.

Prior to joining Peabody & Arnold LLP, Henry developed significant commercial litigation experience, specializing in securities fraud, insurance defense, employment discrimination, trade secret and non-competition disputes, and state and federal regulatory compliance.
