Overview

Scarlett’s trial practice focuses on insurance coverage disputes, general liability and professional liability defense. She represents insurers, businesses, property owners and professionals in the state and federal courts of Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island. Scarlett also defends lawyers, accountants, condominium boards, property managers and owners, skilled nursing facilities, and other professionals in all aspects of litigation including, if necessary, arbitration and trial. She is an accomplished trial lawyer with a strong courtroom presence during both oral arguments and witness examinations. Insurance companies, businesses and professionals faced with litigation rely on Scarlett for her tenacity and strong legal advocacy skills to obtain a swift and favorable resolution of the matter. With her insightful legal analysis and practical approach, clients turn to Scarlett for her ability to solve highly complex and difficult disputes in a manner that makes both legal and business sense.
