

Firm Favorably Resolves Insurance Coverage Dispute For Client

Partners

Tamara Smith Holtslag

Related Practices

Insurance Coverage and Bad
Faith Litigation

By Peabody & Arnold on March 30, 2016

Partner Tamara Smith Holtslag recently resolved a multi-million dollar insurance coverage fee dispute for her commercial insurer client. The case, which was pending in private arbitration, concerned the propriety and massive expense associated with the defense of an underlying antitrust action against large healthcare company in New York.