

Insured's Counterclaim Against Claimant Did Not Create Conflict of Interest Between Insured and Insurer

Of Counsel

James J. Duane, III

Related Practices

Insurance Coverage and Bad
Faith Litigation

By Scarlett M. Rajbanshi on January 24, 2018

The First Circuit Court of Appeals (Thompson, J.) recently ruled in the case of Mount Vernon Fire Insurance Company v. VisionAid, Inc., 875 F.3d 716, that no conflict of interest existed between an employment liability insurer and its insured that entitled the insured to independent counsel at the insurer's expense to defend against an age discrimination suit brought by a former employee.

An article from National Underwriter's online resource, FC&S Legal: The Insurance Coverage Law Information Center authored by Peabody & Arnold LLP attorney Scarlett M. Rajbanshi who, along with attorney James Duane, III, represented Mount Vernon Fire Insurance Company in the matter can be found here. The article is being republished with the permission of FC&S Legal.