

Sharon Fry Speaking at CLM Cyber, Management and Professional Liability Conference

Related Practices

Directors, Officers, Professional, and Corporate Liability Coverage

By Peabody & Arnold on July 6, 2020

On July 8, 2020, Peabody & Arnold Partner Sharon Fry is speaking on a panel titled “Is the “Paperless” Movement Good for Managed Health Care? Preventing and Managing High-Tech Fraud” at the Claims Litigation Management Alliance (“CLM”) Cyber, Management and Professional Liability Conference. This panel will address emerging fraud risks in managed health care, the industry response to those risks, and the coverage implications. Further information on the conference can be found here.